

Lynn Desmone

Senior Vice President, Claims Manager

As Claims Manager for our region, Lynn works with our clients to deliver sound claims management practices in coordination with our carriers. Working with the HUB team, our claims department is here to serve you when you need it most, providing important claims advocacy to improve outcomes, as well as coordinate additional claims service as necessary.

Joining HUB International in 2015 to work with our National Captive Practice, Lynn was responsible for the underwriting analysis, design, implementation and ongoing administration of single parent captives and alternative risk programs. Working with a variety of industries, Lynn has experience in creating and managing both domestic and international captives structured based on the risk management philosophy of each client.

Prior to joining HUB International, Lynn gained extensive experience in commercial property and casualty insurance working with a large international carrier in a variety of disciplines including management, underwriting, specialty coverages, and managing field operations. She began working in the captive space in 2013 utilizing her traditional property casualty experience in the underwriting and design of pure captive insurance programs.
